Rates include day of show grooming. In addition to these rates, the handler will retain all prize money, including but not limited to Sweepstakes & Futurities

Expenses:

Show expenses will be divided equally between the number of dogs exhibited (including the handler's) at each particular show or show weekend. This includes dogs brought to the show by their owners and/or dogs booked after the close of entries. Chargeable expenses can include gasoline, parking, hotel, airfare, rental car and miscellaneous dog expense for the handler and any assistants. In addition to these expenses a $0.15 per mile charge.

Entries:

Client is responsible for all entries. Handler will facilitate entries if the client is registered with Best In Show Entry Service. More information available upon request.

Cancellations:

All previously booked handling of a dog at a show, must be cancelled with the handler, a minimum of 48 hours prior to the closing date of the show. Cancellations received later than the required 48 hours prior to closing deadline will be billed the full amount of the previously booked handling fees.

It is further understood that failure of a client to enter dog (client forgets, the entry service fails to get the entry in, entries get lost in the mail, etc.) after verbally contracting the handlers to show a dog for a specific show or shows will result in assessment of full handling fees for said show(s). Fees will also be assessed in full if client pulls a dog after close of entries or within 24 hours of closing date for a given show.

Extreme emergencies will be considered on an individual basis.

It is understood that the owner of the dog will assume all costs incurred by the handlers for any medical treatment by a veterinarian required for the dog while under supervision of the handlers. It is further agreed that the handlers shall determine the need for any veterinary care of the animal while under their supervision.

It is the client's responsibility to advise the handlers of any habits the dog may have that could possibly present a problem in giving safe and adequate care in the handlers facility or at the dog show. It is also the client's responsibility to furnish instructions and medication if the dog is on medication of any kind. All clients are required to keep their dogs shots current per their vet's recommendation.

It is understood that the handler, Lesli Smith, also exhibits dogs that they co-own or co-bred. In the case of ring conflict, priority will be at the discretion of the handler. Owners that have supported the handler consistently and over the longest period of time will have priority. If necessary, a competent substitute handler will be secured to show your dog and the normal handling fee will be charged. In the event that no competent handler is available, the dog will be marked absent and no handling fee will be charged.
